

ANGP Meeting Notes: March 14, 2023

Meeting Started: 7:31pm

Treasurer report: 225 Tickets sold. 52 waivers not accounted for. $11,000 in sales for mulch. $45k in bank.

Good news: Taxes in 2020 were never paid. Rob has been working with the IRS to remove the late fees of $20 a day, for a year. Agent has confirmed it will be removed. Letter stating this will be received within 30 days.

Ticket Sales: 225, hoping to get to 300 tickets. Price increases on April 1st. Put list of who's coming posted around school to entice other students to register for the party.

Donations: Nothing new has come in. Michelle to send more letters.

Casino: Nick Bartoo not at meeting

Dave & Buster's: Don't need to pay anything else to D&B until the evening of the party. Coffee bar has been added at no extra charge.

Message was given the temperature was very hot at last year's party.

Merchandise: Anna Wojick not at meeting. Big quantity of shorts to sell. Push shorts on web.

Mulch: 1,600 bags! 7 Bulk Orders! Need lots of volunteers to help with mulch deliveries this Saturday. Need trucks with drivers. Reservation at Penske for 2 trucks (16ft and 26ft). There is a band parent who is used to driving the larger truck and is ready to help. Need a forklift operator. Teresa said Jim has experience and can help with the forklift. Greg to help coordinate the bulk orders. Total trucks cost $650 (all in).

Idea to offer a raffle ticket for the party to any student who helps with the mulch on Saturday. 1 per shift (not hour).

Raffles: 40 tickets sold. Will keep raffle open until May meeting, when a name will be picked.

Restaurant Nights: Chipotle night in April is on the calendar.

Security: No need to do anything with the Fire Marshall. 1 dad has expressed interest in helping with security.

Volunteers: Teresa reported there are still spots for volunteering.

Yard Signs: Laura still has yard signs that have not been picked up by parents. On Saturday when the mulch is getting picked up, the yard signs that are left will be available for pick up. Also, putting in another order for more personalized signs for parents who didn't put an order in earlier.

Meeting ended: 8:20pm
